Indigestion Loss of Strength And Appetite.

The testimony of Mr. R. Dennis, Adelaide, South Australia, who was cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is like unto that of many thousands of others. He writes:

"It is with very much pleasure that I testify to the great benefit I received from using your wonderful blood-purifier. I was a sufferer for years from indigestion, loss of strength and appetite, and constipation. My whole system seemed to be thoroughly out of order. A friend finally told me to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I followed his advice, though feeling discouraged at the fruitless results of other treatment, and I am thankful to state that a few bottles completely cured me."

The medicine that has cured others will cure you.

Beware of imitations. The name—Ayer's Sarsaparilla—is prominent on the wrapper and blown in the glass of each bottle.

DIVORCES GRANTED.

Other Matters Disputed and Pending in Circuit Court.

Judge Stanley, on petition of Henry Smith, attorney for the estate of Chas. Hooper, deceased, today made an order appointing Thomas H. Wright, of South Kona, as a commissioner to take the testimony of Maggie Hooper of said place.

Pae Kamaka was today granted a divorce by Judge Stanley from Kaubashaa on the ground of his desertion.

Judge Stanley this morning heard testimony in the divorce case of Thomas L. Andrews vs. Rosalie A. Andrews. It satisfactorily appearing to the Court that the defendant did commit adultery with one Unea Koshon, a decree of divorce as prayed for was granted and the plaintiff awarded the custody of the seven children of the parties. K. Huey & Ballou for plaintiff.

The action for divorce on the ground of the leprosy of the defendant in the case of E. Ernie Quignus vs. Vincente Quignus was partly heard and went over to procure evidence of the defendant's condition in 1893.

In the litigation of Victoria War vs. Chas. S. Dekey and E. Peck & Co., the defendants by their attorneys, Castle and Weaver, asked for time to plead. It was consented to by Kinney & Ballou on the condition that an appeal to the Supreme Court, if taken, be heard during vacation to prevent delay.

The Anglican Chronicle.

This month's Anglican Church Chronicle is on time. Rev. Alex. Mackintosh the editor has seasonable words about Lent. There is a reference to the S. P. C. K. anniversary. Mr. Davies' generous offer for the proposed Victoria Jubilee Hospital is discussed as only Mr. Mackintosh, the author of the idea, can discuss it. The article on this subject clears away misapprehensions and ought to be studied by all concerned. The news and educational features are up to high water mark.

AMENDED WIDE TIRES BILL

Full Text of the Bill as Passed by the Senate.

The Act Goes Into Effect in July, 1900—
Vehicles With Less Than Inch and a Half Axles Not Affected.

In response to general inquiry as to the provisions of Senator McCandless' act relating to and concerning vehicles, tires and wheels, which has passed the Senate with amendments proposed by the committee on Public Lands, the text of the bill as amended is printed below:

Section 1. Every owner of a cart, dray, wagon, omnibus, stagecoach, wagonette, or other vehicle used upon any public road and which shall have been brought into the Hawaiian Islands or the construction of which shall have been completed after the thirtieth day of June, A. D. 1898, the axles of which are one and one half inches or more in diameter, shall have wheels, tires and axles proportioned as stated below:

PROPORTION OF TIRES AND AXLES.

In the case of one-horse dump carts, without springs, the width of wheel tire shall be at least one and one-half times the diameter of the axle.

In the case of all other vehicles without springs the width of wheel tire shall be at least double the diameter of the axle except goose neck drays in which case the width of tire on the front wheels need not be over one and one-half times the diameter of the axle.

In the case of vehicles with springs, the width of wheel tire shall be at least one and one-half times the diameter of the axle.

In the case of vehicles with wooden axles the width of wheel tire shall be at least the diameter of the axle.

Other styles of axle shall have tires of same width as those of equal carrying capacity above specified.

Section 2. The front and rear axles of all vehicles mentioned in this Act shall differ in length so that in progressing along a straight course the hind wheels shall not pass over the same ground passed over by the front wheels.

Section 3. Every person who uses upon any public highway or street in the Republic of Hawaii any cart, dray, omnibus, stagecoach, wagonette, wagon or other vehicle, the wheels of which wagon or vehicle have tires of a less width than specified for such kind of wagon or vehicle in Section 1, or whose axles do not conform to the provisions of Section 2 of this Act, shall be guilty of misdemeanor.

Section 4. From and after the first day of July, A. D. 1900, every owner or driver of a cart, wagon, omnibus, stagecoach, wagonette or other vehicle used or driven upon any public street, road or highway even though brought into the Hawaiian Islands or constructed previous to the thirtieth day of June, A. D. 1898, the wheels of which wagon or vehicle has tires of a less width than as specified and provided for such kind of wagon or vehicle in Section 1 of this Act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Section 5. Any person found guilty of a violation of any of the provisions of this Act shall be fined in the penal sum of not less than ten dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars.

Section 6. This Act shall become a law from and after the date of its approval.

The March Parade.

The report on the cultivation of coffee, made by U. S. Consul General Haywood, appears in the March number of The Paradise of The Pacific, issued today. This report is said to be the best ever made, for the reason that Mr. Haywood made a personal investigation. A pretty picture accompanies the story. Miss Janet Jennings, a newspaper correspondent, who recently visited the islands, describes the trip from Honolulu to Kilauea. J. L. Travis tells of the scenic beauties of the islands. Then there is an article relating to the Honolulu Fire Department, with an artistic picture of the new station. A great deal of other interesting matter appears, the whole making a valuable number of the popular monthly journal.

Macy and Jackson.

Toya Jackson and George Macy are now on the morning watch at the telephone. For the first time in many months the people of the town were informed directly the Mariposa arrived off port yesterday morning, and received a number of other courtesies from "Central." With these two experts on the busy watch there will be no more kicks against the telephone.

Thieving on Punchbowl.

H. G. Mart, the Fort street jeweler, had a set of buggy harness stolen from the stable at his residence, Prospect and Magazine streets, a few nights ago. He has no clue to the thief. The case is a warning to dwellers on the quiet Punchbowl slopes, not to leave portable property exposed or unsecured.

National Band Concert.

This is the evening of the grand concert by the National Band in the Opera house. Samuel K. Kamakia will conduct the program. The Quintet Club and Kawaihau Glee Club will assist. A young musician will appear and play on six different instruments.

Drill Last Night.

The second battalion, Major McCarthy, had guard mount on Armory square last night. All of the companies participated. It was the first experience of many of the men in sentry duty. The work was very creditable, and entirely satisfactory to the officers.

Dedication This Evening.

The new organ in Kamehameha Chapel will be dedicated at 8 o'clock this evening. Wray Taylor will play on the instrument during the services. All friends of the schools are cordially invited to be present.

Pianos.

All styles of Kroege pianos for sale, for cash or on the installment plan. Old instruments exchanged for new ones. Pianos rented, tuned and repaired. Telephone 321. J. W. BERGSTROM, Masonic Temple.

The Zealandia has brought the usual supply of ice house goods for Camarinos' California Fruit Market, corner King and Alakea streets. Leave your orders early or ring up Tel. 378.

Mr. Achi, the Kona, an appropriation for a light at the landing at Hookens.

Mr. Robertson, for the Judiciary Committee, presented a report on House bills 19 and 21, both relating to changes in action and rights of assignees to sue in certain cases. A substitute bill was introduced, and same passed first reading. Printing Committee.

Under suspension of the rules Minister Cooper reported that the President had signed the following matters: Senate bill 1, appropriating $20,000 for expenses of session of 1898.

Joint resolution of disaster to the battleship Maine at Havana.

Mr. Kahaulaio introduced a resolution for $560 to indemnify J. Pinau for the loss of his houses at Kapukukoo during the cholera scare in September, 1895. This man's houses were quarantined and later burned by the Board of Health.

Mr. Loebenstein, for the Committee on Public Lands and Internal Improvements, presented an exhaustive report on petitions referred to the committee at various times in the past two weeks. Tabled for reference when the appropriation bill is up.

Mr. Achi introduced his bill relating to claims against the property of deceased persons.

The same member gave notice of his intention to introduce a bill relating to Tax Appeal Courts, repealing Sections 75 to 79, inclusive, Act 51, Laws of 1896, relating thereto.

House bill 18, law of evidence, came up to be read by sections. After reading of first section, and remarks thereon by Mr. Robertson and Mr. Smith, Mr. Isenberg moved to postpone to next Wednesday. Carried.

House bill 13, relating to coroner's jurors, went over to Monday. Adjourned.

Houses cannot be built without walls and homes cannot be made comfortable without pictures to cover the bare places on the walls. If you have the walls, we have the pictures to cover them. Yours truly, King Bros., 110 Hotel street.
